Episode length: ~20 minutes

Companion PDFs: Panorama 05 — Abraham · Panorama 06 — Jacob · Panorama 07 — Joseph

One-sentence promise: "Three Panoramas, three patriarchs, one promise — and the same God who calls Abraham out of Babel is still the God who hides Joseph in Pharaoh's prison."

Cold open (00:00 – 01:00)

---

[OPEN][THEME]

HOST: Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country. Genesis 12:1. The first command in Scripture after Babel is leave. Welcome to the CFADD Panorama Podcast. I am Apostle Tommy E. Quick. Tonight is the longest reach of the season — three Panoramas in one episode. Abraham. Jacob. Joseph. Genesis 12 to 50. Thirty-nine chapters. One arc. [THEME OUT]

[MAP] Three downloads tonight. Panoramas 5, 6, and 7 at cfadd.org/pentateuch. Print them or stack them. You will want all three open.

Banners + Macro Across All Three (01:00 – 04:30)

---

[ZONE 1][ZONE 2]

HOST: Three banners.

- Panorama 5 — Abrahamic Covenant. The call out of Babel and the covenant cut with one man for the sake of all nations.
- Panorama 6 — Jacob. The promised line passes through a wrestler — and the man Israel is born.
- Panorama 7 — Joseph. God hides the savior of nations in an Egyptian prison so He can plant a covenant family in a famine land.

Macro for the whole arc: This is the Covenant Carrier stage of the Pentateuch. After the scattering of Babel, God does not start over with humanity — He starts again with one family. Abraham. Isaac. Jacob. Joseph. Four generations of one household, carrying a promise that will not become a nation for four hundred more years.

[SHIFT] Here is the macro insight — God does not rescue the nations directly. He rescues the nations through a family. That is not incidental to your work. That is the whole shape of biblical advocacy. Households carry the promise that cultures cannot yet receive.

Zone 3 — Outline Bars, Briefly (04:30 – 09:00)

[ZONE 3]

HOST: I will walk the bars quickly — the visuals do the heavy lifting.

Panorama 5 — Abraham:

- The Call. Genesis 12. Get thee out.
- The Famine and Egypt. The first detour.
- Lot Separates. The first split.
- The Covenant Cut. Genesis 15. Smoking furnace, burning lamp.
- Hagar and Ishmael. The first flesh-route.
- Circumcision. The covenant in the body.
- Sodom. Abraham's intercession — the kingdom voice begins.
- Isaac Born. Genesis 21. The laughter of promise.
- Mount Moriah. Genesis 22. The binding of Isaac.
- Rebekah at the Well. The bride sought for the son.

Panorama 6 — Jacob:

- Twins Wrestle. In the womb.
- Birthright. Esau sells.
- Blessing Stolen. Isaac deceived.
- Bethel. The ladder. God meets a fugitive.
- Laban. Twenty years of being deceived in turn.
- The Sons. Twelve names. A nation forming.
- Peniel. Jacob wrestles. Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel.
- Reconciliation with Esau. The hug that should not have been possible.

Panorama 7 — Joseph:

- The Coat. Favoritism's first sign.
- The Dreams. Sheaves and stars bow down.

Zone 4 + 5 — Structural Flow and Shifts (09:00 – 13:00)

---

[ZONE 4][ZONE 5][SHIFT]

HOST: Across all three Panoramas, four shifts shape the whole arc.

Shift 1 — Call to Covenant. Abraham starts with a command (Get thee out) and ends with a covenant cut in pieces (Genesis 15). The voice that calls is the voice that cuts. Vocation always becomes covenant.

Shift 2 — Promise to Wrestle. Isaac is the promise child; Jacob is the wrestling child. God matures the covenant by letting it grapple. A family with no Peniel night will not know its real name.

Shift 3 — Favorite Son to Suffering Servant. Joseph begins the story as the favorite. He ends the story in a coat that was stripped, in a pit that should have been a grave, in a prison that should have been a tomb. The favorite son becomes the savior brother only by going down before he goes up.

Shift 4 — Family to Nation in Embryo. The arc opens with one couple. By chapter 50 there are seventy souls in Egypt. A nation is being grown inside a household. Exodus opens with And these are the names... — the very list that closes Genesis.

Structural connective tissue: every patriarchal section has a well, an altar, a famine, and a dream. Wells are where wives are found. Altars are where promises are remembered. Famines are where God relocates the covenant. Dreams are where He overrides the household's plans.

Zone 6 — Literary Divisions (13:00 – 14:00)

[ZONE 6]

HOST: Across the arc:

- Genesis 12 – 25:18 — The Abraham cycle.
- Genesis 25:19 – 36:43 — The Jacob cycle.
- Genesis 37:1 – 50:26 — The Joseph cycle.

Each cycle is roughly the same length. Genesis is structurally a four-cycle book — primeval (1–11), Abraham, Jacob, Joseph.

Zone 7 — Ministry Layer (14:00 – 17:30)

---

[ZONE 7][MINISTRY]

HOST: Six pillars across the patriarchs.

Doctrine in the Text. Election is by grace and through promise, not merit. Romans 9 will use these chapters to make exactly that case. The covenant is unilateral. The carrier is bilateral — but the covenant is one-sided.

Family Principle. Three out of three patriarchs face household fracture — Hagar/Ishmael, Esau/Jacob, the brothers/Joseph. The covenant does not protect a household from fracture; the covenant carries the household through the fracture. Tell that to a family in crisis tonight.

Kingdom Principle. Abraham intercedes for Sodom. Joseph governs Egypt. The covenant family is always functioning at two scales — household integrity at home, kingdom influence in the public square. Genesis trains both.

Cultural Application. The world's destructive decisions are absorbed and redirected by a faithful household. Egypt is saved through Joseph's table. The most important political figure in Genesis is a Hebrew slave who never sought office.

Prayer Declaration. Lord, call my household out of Babel, cut covenant in my body, wrestle with me till my name changes, and place me in Pharaoh's prison if that is the prep room for the throne You have for me.

Rebuilder's Charge. Rebuilders parent into the third and fourth generation. Abraham's eyes never saw Israel as a nation. He saw it on the horizon. The Rebuilder works for fruit he will not eat. You are not building for next quarter. You are building for the grandchild of the household you are mentoring.

Zone 8 — Christward Trajectory (17:30 – 19:00)

---

[ZONE 8][CHRISTWARD]

HOST: Christ across all three Panoramas.

Abraham — Mount Moriah. Genesis 22. A father offers his only son on a mountain, and a ram is provided in the thicket. In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen. Two thousand years later, on the same range, a different Father will offer His only Son on a hill, and there will be no ram in the thicket — because the Son is the Ram. God will provide himself a lamb, Abraham says in 22:8. He spoke better than he knew.

Jacob — Bethel and Peniel. The ladder Jacob saw in Genesis 28 — and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it — is identified by Jesus in John 1:51 as Himself. Ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man. And the wrestler Jacob meets at Peniel, who blesses him and renames him — Jacob himself names that wrestler God face to face. He met Christ in the dark.

Joseph — every detail. The favored son. The robe. The brothers' jealousy. The selling for silver. The descent into the pit. The temptation refused. The two prisoners — one saved, one lost. The exaltation to the right hand of the throne. The famine that brings the brothers to him. The reconciliation: Ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good. Joseph is the most extended type of Christ in the Old Testament. Genesis closes by spending fourteen chapters on a man who is, in every detail, a forecast of the Messiah.
